Handwriting practice area with multiple sets of lines (solid top and bottom, dashed middle) for writing.

The image shows a handwriting practice sheet. It features a large rectangular frame containing ten sets of horizontal lines for writing. Each set consists of three lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. In the top right corner of the main frame, there is a smaller, empty rectangular box. The entire sheet is designed for practicing letter formation and alignment.

A large rectangular frame containing a series of horizontal lines for writing. The frame is divided into two sections: the top section contains four lines, and the bottom section contains sixteen lines.

This image shows a blank sheet of lined paper designed for writing. The page features a large rectangular border. Inside this border, there are 20 horizontal lines spaced evenly down the page. On the right side of the page, there is a smaller, empty rectangular box that overlaps the main writing area. This box is positioned in the upper right quadrant of the page.
