Handwriting practice area with multiple sets of lines. Each set consists of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. There are five such sets of lines on the page.

The image shows a handwriting practice sheet. It features a large rectangular frame containing several sets of primary-ruled lines. Each set consists of three horizontal lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. There are 10 such sets of lines arranged vertically. In the upper right portion of the main writing area, there is a smaller, empty rectangular box. The entire sheet is designed for practicing letter formation and alignment.
