Handwriting practice area with multiple sets of lines. Each set consists of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. There are 10 such sets of lines arranged vertically within the large frame.

The image shows a handwriting practice sheet. It features a large rectangular frame containing several sets of horizontal lines for writing. Each set consists of three lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. There are 10 such sets of lines. In the upper right corner of the main writing area, there is a smaller, empty rectangular box, likely intended for a student's name or a drawing. The entire sheet is designed for practicing letter formation and alignment.

The flag

A large rectangular frame containing a series of horizontal lines for writing. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the frame, providing a space for students to write about the flag.

A blank sheet of lined paper with a rectangular box on the right side. The paper has horizontal lines for writing. The box is positioned in the upper right quadrant of the page.
